ISLAMIC CALENDAR

DATES FOR 2021

For planning work holidays

Please note:

- Please allow for the fact that for planning purposes, dates used are based on astronomical calculations. These dates are only a guide to help plan time off work and may not match exact dates. Exact dates will be determined nearer the time depending on sighting of new moon where you are.
- This guide has been produced in light of the fact that in the work place one may have to book holidays and time off work many months in advance. Many workers do not have the luxury of waiting for exact dates based on moon sightings to book time off work at the last minute.
- This is not a religious dates calendar. Hence not all religious days are covered. It includes only those key dates for which people usually need to plan time off work for.

Compiled by Bristol Muslim Cultural Society.

Jack in the Box Big Bible Story provides over two years worth of worship material and is specifically designed to introduce the youngest children to God's Big Story through all the key Bible characters of the Old and New Testament. Whilst much of the material is new, the familiar elements of Hello Time, Story Time, Thinking Time and Praying Time will be familiar to children along with, of course, Jack the much loved Labrador puppy! (little picture of Jack here?.)

For schools using Christian Values themes in their worship, links to the 18 values included in Roots and Fruits One and Two are clearly signposted on each page throughout both volumes.
